

TATLER®

January 2022
£4.99

HIGH BORN
OMAR FAYED ON HIS BROTHER DODI, DIANA
& A FAMILY AT WAR

HIGH BROW
A WEEKEND WITH THE
NEW CLIVEDEN SET

HIGH SEASON
HOW TO DRESS LIKE
A MODERN DUCHESS

HIGH TREASON
WHAT NEW YORK
SOCIETY REALLY THINKS
OF PRINCE ANDREW

MORE DRAMA THAN A SOAP OPERA
CHARLENE OF MONACO
WHAT DOES IT TAKE TO BE A MODERN PRINCESS?

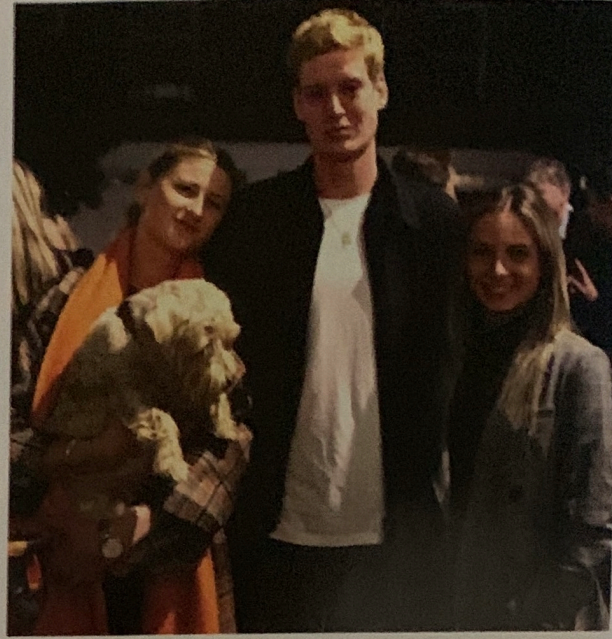

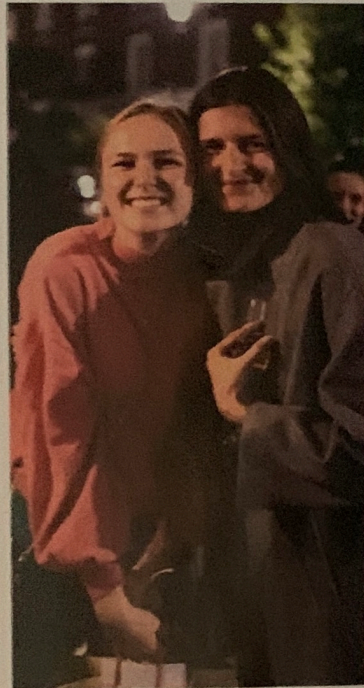

Emily Steel & Jamie Dransford

The Marchioness of Blandford

Issy Hills, Diego Luyckx & Lizzy Nielsen

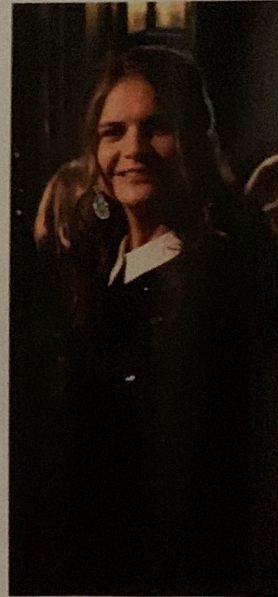

Kitty Wrey & Louisa Wentworth-Stanley

TAKEN BY SURPRISE

Photographs by HUBERT CECIL

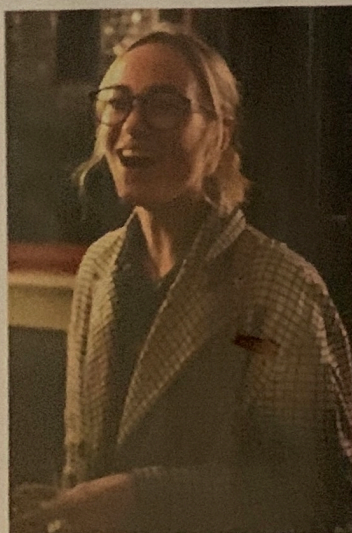

Fresh from the 'Tolly Championships' at Sandown, David Tollemache and George Blandford swept into The Surprise in Chelsea for a round of G&Ts to toast a successful day's go-karting. They weren't the only ones celebrating: pub landlord Jack Greenall and interior designer Isabella Worsley had gathered 100 friends to mark the six months since reopening this SW3 stalwart, once more the hotspot for the Chelsea set. A newly married Philippa Cadogan caught up with Jemima Cadbury over smoked salmon blinis, while Billy Jenks, chatting to Max Dodd-Noble, extolled the return of 'vertical drinking' – ie, leaning on the bar with a pint. Any noise complaints from the neighbours yet? 'Surprisingly not,' quipped Greenall.

Lady Jemima Davies

Ella Murray

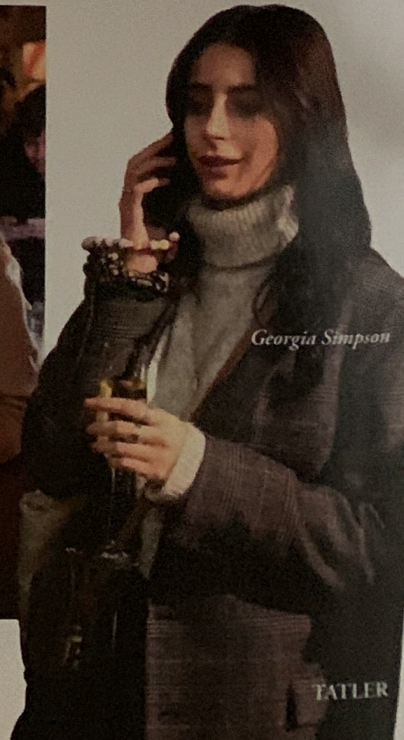

Jenny Webber

The Hon Jake Greenall

Lily Wetherill & Carinthia Pearson

Georgia Simpson