

TALK: An evening with Gilbert Greenall, author of Combat Civilian

A talk with Gilbert Greenall, adviser to the UK government and United Nations on humanitarian emergencies and the welfare of civilians during and after conflict. Gilbert is also the author of Combat Civilian, a memoir documenting his 40-year career in the management of humanitarian crises from Sierra Leone, to Bosnia, Iraq and Afghanistan.

Tuesday 7th June
6.30pm - 7.30pm
Welcome drinks from 6pm
For tickets, please email: events@thesurprise-chelsea.co.uk

Tickets: £20 per ticket which includes a welcome drink
To book a table for dinner after the talk please call us on 020 3837 4600 or visit our website: www.thesurprise-chelsea.co.uk

Dates For Your Diary -

Tuesday 31 May, 7pm: 'Town of Palaces' - old riverside Chelsea: A talk with historian and author of Built in Chelsea, Dan Cruickshank

Tuesday 7th June, 6.30pm: An evening with Gilbert Greenall, author of Combat Civilian

Tuesday 14th June, 7pm: Royal Hospital: A talk with historian and author of Built in Chelsea, Dan Cruickshank

Tuesday 21 June, 6.30pm: Inside the Chelsea Arts Club: In conversation with Geoffrey Matthews, Secretary and Chief Executive of the Chelsea Arts Club

Wednesday 29th June, 7pm: Artists in Chelsea: A talk with historian and author of Built in Chelsea, Dan Cruickshank

Tuesday 5th July, 7pm: 'Modern' Chelsea – 1920s and 1930s: A talk with historian and author of Built in Chelsea, Dan Cruickshank

Tickets: £20 per ticket, per talk

To purchase tickets, please email: events@thesurprise-chelsea.co.uk

To book a table for dinner after the talk please call us on 020 3837 4600 or visit our website: www.thesurprise-chelsea.co.uk