THURSDAY 19TH NOVEMBER

Le BEAUJOLAIS Nouveau

THE STORY OF BEAUJOLAIS NOUVEAU

The tradition began in the 19th century, but it was only in 1951 that the first official release took place, sparking an annual celebration.

By the 1960s, Beaujolais producers had turned it into a true fête, and by the 1980s it was officially set for the third Thursday of November - a date now circled on every wine lover's calendar.

Join us at The Surprise to toast this year's arrival - a perfect excuse to sip, savour, and celebrate the season in style.

Always the third thursday of November, from midday at The Surprise!
